

KNIGHTSBRIDGE

If you walk down Knightsbridge today, you'll be sure of a big surprise! Until 30th August, discover stunning artworks by Simone Brewster in Hooper's Court as part of Kensington and Chelsea Art Week and enjoy our free public art trail, 'Kids Go Wild,' which features nine astonishing bronze animal sculptures created by British and Australian artists, Gillie and Marc, with three roaming in Knightsbridge. Why not wander down Sloane Street, and flip this map over, to discover the rest of the trail and many more free artworks to enjoy on the King's Road.

knightsbridgedn.co.uk

@knightsbridge_ldn

THE KNIGHTSBRIDGE
ESTATE.

KNIGHTSBRIDGE
PARTNERSHIP

KENSINGTON
+ CHELSEA
ART
WEEK

KIDS GO WILD

The 'A Wild Life for Wildlife' project features nine astonishing bronze sculptures by British & Australian artists, Gillie and Marc, bringing delight & awareness for endangered animals.

1

OUTSIDE KNIGHTSBRIDGE TUBE STATION, NEAR EL&N & HARRODS

"Dogman and Rabbitwoman"

Hans Crescent, London, SW1X 0LZ
Open until 30 August

2

OUTSIDE ZARA AND HARRODS IN HANS CRESCENT

"The polar bear and Dogman wanted everyone to stay cool"

Hans Crescent, London, SW1X 0LZ
Open until 30 August

3

THE LANESBOROUGH

"The giant tortoise and Rabbitwoman loved the sound of the wild"

Hyde Park Corner, London, SW1X 7TA
Open until 30 August

'SPIRIT OF PLACE' BY SIMONE BREWSTER

Knightsbridge Estate presents Simone Brewster's 'Spirit of Place' in collaborations with Amorium. Five large scale sculptural vessels made of versatile and sustainable material: cork.

4

HOOPER'S COURT

Simone Brewster is an artist, designer, educator and a cultural change-maker.

Hooper's Court, London, SW3 1DE
Open until 30 August
simonebrewster.co.uk

'THINKING' BY EGOR ZIGURA

Ukrainian artist Egor Zigura explores the evolving internal landscape of an individual and their interior-exterior boundary.

5

SLOANE STREET NEAR TOM FORD

Egor's work demonstrates fracture in the mind & the solution: to live in the present.

199 Sloane Street, London, SW1X 9QX
Open until 31 August
egorzigura.art